TRINITY SUNDAY, YEAR A

Exodus 34:4-6,8-9 Having received the stone tablets, Moses meets God.

II Corinthians 13:11-13 Paul exhorts the faithful to live in accord with one another, thus they will imitate the love and unity of God.

John 3:16-18 God sent His son into the world not for condemnation but for salvation.

Discussion Question: How can we imitate the closeness and mutual support that exists within the Triune God?

Commento: Il mistero di Dio è legato all'amore che si comunica. Non è una manifestazione generica, ma in un evento storico..."- G. Ravasi

Comentario: "El camino a la glorificación ha quedado plenamente marcado por Cristo al morir en la cruz." – Alberto Martín Jiménez

FROM THE PASTOR

In preparation those who are now newly confirmed had written letters to me and to Bishop Jude. I would like to share some of their comments:

“On the day of Confirmation, I will be anointed by oil and being called by name in front of the whole Church. I wish to be called Rose.”

“I have chosen the name of my sister who passed away 7 years ago and is still very special to me.”

“Receiving Confirmation is a stepping stone towards God and Jesus Christ.”

“As I mature and grow I recognize that more responsibility will be put on my shoulders, by myself and others. In my faith and my life, I'd like to be empowered by the Holy Spirit to take on this responsibility.”

The journey of faith takes various dips and turns and reading these letters, it appears to me that the Holy Spirit is active and alive. Fr. Bob

DEAR PEOPLE OF GOD,

I, Fr Fidelis recently completed my masters at Fordham University and have been offered admission with scholarship at the University of Notre Dame. With the understanding of my Bishop, Bishop Jude, I will be furthering my studies to the PhD level at the university of Notre Dame . I shall proceed to the university by the second week of August. I am grateful to you, the good people of OLMC, the Deacons , the Pastor, and my Bishop for the support.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION REGISTRATION

Registration for our Religious Education Program for children attending public school has begun. Children are expected to complete grades 1-8. Please contact Deacon Dan for information.
