24TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR A

Sirach 27: 30-28:7 Avoid revenge and hatred and imitate the example of God's mercy.

Romans 14: 7-9 Whether we live or die we are ultimately responsible to God, in this we follow Christ's example of unselfish love.

Matthew 18: 21-35 Jesus' tells a parable on the necessity of always being ready to forgive the one who causes sin or grievance.

Discussion Question: How can we model a life of forgiveness and compassion to our co-workers, schoolmates, friends and family?

Commento: "Il cristianesimo dovrebbe esaltare senza sosta lo splendore dell'uomo; anche quando il peccatore calpesta la sua dignità umana." G. Ravasi

Comentario del Domingo "Tenemos una gran responsabilidad sobre la salvación de nuestros hermanos. Todos. Absolutamente todos.." - Ángel Gómez Escorial

STEMS AT OLMC SCHOOL Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics and Service.

FROM THE PASTOR

Let us Pray for Our Brothers and Sisters along the Gulf coast in Texas where they are experiencing extreme weather and dangerous flooding. The parish will also be taking up a collection on Sunday Sept 17th for the needy and desperate at this time. Let us also pray for those in the path of Hurricane Irma.

FROM THE NEWLY CONFIRMED

Letters from the Newly confirmed:

"As a teenager, I know that the people around me expect me to be more mature and responsible in life. This is also true in my faith, that I would like to make my faith grow and become stronger as I grow..."

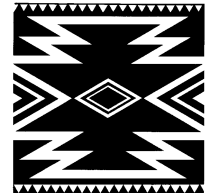

Being a good Catholic is something that I want to be. I know what a good Catholic has to do because I have watched my parents and grandparents these 13 years and they are the best examples that I can think of."

"As I grow and learn to cope with stress and the piling needs of daily life, I learn to better understand the need for a deeper connection to God and my faith."

The journey of faith takes various dips and turns and reading these letters, it appears to me that the Holy Spirit is active and alive. Fr. Bob

RELIGIOUS ED

Registration for our Religious Education for children attending public school has begun. Children are expected to complete grades 1-8. Please contact Deacon Dan for information. Re-registration forms are available from the Parish Office, the Religious Ed. office.

SACRAMENTAL LITURGIES: BAPTISM

The Baptism proper takes place after the parents and godparents have renounced sin and professed their faith in the name of the child. Baptism means literally a "dipping," because they were immersed into waters, such as the scene at Our Lord's baptism. It was the standard practice of the early church. Those to be baptized were led to separate rooms where they stripped and the men were baptized by a deacon and the women by a deaconess. It was only later that the practice of pouring water became more common. Still the practice of immersion is the preferred method according to the liturgical documents. It is best understood as a bath in which the child is completely cleansed and welcomed into the community. Anyone who prefers this method of baptism for their children may request it.
