The Costume Institute's spring 2018 exhibition will feature a dialogue between fashion and religious artworks from The Met collection to examine the relationship between creativity and the religious imagination. "I had the opportunity to visit the exhibit last week and I was very impressed by the interplay of Church design and the designs of contemporary fashion designers. It is playful, imaginative and a wonderful meditation on Art and the Spiritual life. The exhibit extends to mid October and it is well worth the visit for the whole family." Fr. Bob

John 6:1-15 This account of the multiplication of the loaves and the fish emphasizes the Lord's initiative.
Discussion Question: How does the Lord multiply our limited resources so that we can help each other?
Commento: "...Gesù si staglia, solitario e silenzioso, sullo sfondo della montagna, incompreso e triste, mentre gli giunse l'eco del clamore della folla che non lo cerca per ciò che egli vuole veramente dare." - G Ravasi
Comentario: Cristo cambia la Pascua judía por una Pascua nueva en que lo que comen los seguidores es pan del cielo, su propio cuerpo y sangre sacramentales y realmente presentes en la eucaristía. - A von Rechnitz Gonzalez

NEWLY CONFIRMED IN THEIR OWN WORDS

The Following are excerpts from Letters from the Newly Confirmed teenagers:

"A part of growing up is maturing both physically and mentally. I have realized that as a member of the Church a larger amount of maturity will be expected of me, not only in my faith but, in life a swell. I would like to begin this special task with the strengthening of the Holy Spirit and I know that I will be able to carry this important task for the rest of my life." G.P..

"As the days near closer until my confirmation I have understood that I will now have to carry out my Christian lifestyle in a mature way." L.L.

"As a teenager, I realized that life isn't always going to go your way. I also realized that people expect more from you since we are growing up, so we can be more mature. This is very true since I've seen how my parents are expecting more from me since I am the oldest." I.G.

"To me Confirmation is not only a stage of fully completion of initiation to the Church but also a gift and privilege for the Holy Spirit to better work through me and the people I serve." C.M.

SUORE MISSIONARIE DI
SAN CARLO BORROMEO
SCALABRINIANE

ANNUAL MISSION
APPEAL August 4-5

Each year, every parish is assigned a group to support for the Mission Appeals this year we have been asked to support The Congregation of the Missionary Sisters of St. Charles Borromeo Scalabrinians founded in Italy, on October 25, 1895. The MSCS Sisters concretize their mission through catechesis, Christian education, pastoral care of health, social action and pastoral care of migration. They work in schools, hospitals, orphanages, prisons, shelters for needy children, nursing homes, formation houses, ethnic-cultural communities, parishes, dioceses, Episcopal conferences, international organizations, civil organizations, promotion centers, centers for listening and welcoming migrants, study and documentation centers. In response to the challenges of human mobility and faithful to the charism that the Church has entrusted to her, the Congregation becomes present through the witness of consecrated life and in the evangelical and missionary service to migrants, especially to the poorest and neediest. The spirit that animates it, is that of universal communion because it wants to make visible the vocation of the members to recognize, love and serve Christ in the person of migrants.
