OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

The Gospel teaches what Jesus' kingdom requires of us: it reminds us that closeness and tenderness are the rule of life for us also, and that on this basis we will be judged. This is how we will be judged. This is the great parable of the final judgment in Matthew 25. The King says: "Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me" (Matthew 25:34–36). The righteous will ask him: when did we do all this? And he will answer them: "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Matthew 25:40).

The starting point of salvation is not the confession of the sovereignty of Christ, but rather the imitation of Jesus' works of mercy through which he brought about his kingdom. The one who accomplishes these works shows that he has welcomed Christ's sovereignty, because he has opened his heart to God's charity. In the twilight of life we will be judged on our love for, closeness to and tenderness towards our brothers and sisters. Upon this will depend our entry into, or exclusion from, the kingdom of God: our belonging to the one side or the other. Through his victory, Jesus has opened to us his kingdom. But it is for us to enter into it, beginning with our life now – his kingdom begins now – by being close in concrete ways to our brothers and sisters who ask for bread, clothing, acceptance, solidarity, catechesis. If we truly love them, we will be willing to share with them what is most precious to us, Jesus himself and his Gospel.

Pope Francis, 23 November 2014

ADVENT REFLECTIONS

Next Sunday, 3 December is the First Sunday of Advent. Throughout the season of Advent, Word on Fire, a global media ministry, offers daily reflections by Bishop Robert Barron, Auxiliary Bishop of Los Angeles and the founder of Word on Fire. To receive these Advent reflections by e-mail, sign up at www.adventreflections.com.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Choir of the Church of Our Saviour will present its annual Christmas Concert on Wednesday, 20 December at 7:30 p.m. at the Church of Our Saviour. Tickets may be purchased at the Parish Office (cash or check) or at <https://oursaviournyc2017.bpt.me> (credit card). Tickets are available for $30 (General Admission). We are very blessed to have one of the finest church choirs in New York City. This concert helps support their ministry to our parish. Please join us and consider bringing friends and sharing the great gift of music celebrating the Nativity of Our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, with a wider community.

HARK! A THRILLING VOICE IS SOUNDING

In 2015, the Choir of the Church of Our Saviour, under the direction of Paul J. Murray, released Hark! A Thrilling Voice is Sounding, a recording which features music for Advent and Christmas. The recording is now available for purchase for $20 (tax included) through our website (credit card) or in person at the Parish Office (cash or check). You may also purchase the recording for download on iTunes and Amazon mp3. Make sure that you have a copy in time for the First Sunday of Advent, 3 December. It is a wonderful gift for family, friends, and co-workers.

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

Once again, during the Advent season, our parish will undertake a Christmas gift drive. Our "Giving Trees" are now in place in the vestibule of the Church and the lobby of the Chapel. We ask you to take an ornament from the tree. Each one has a gift item printed on the front. Please bring your new gift to the parish office or the lobby of the Chapel no later than Sunday, 10 December. (Do not wrap or box your gift and please make sure to attach the tag.)

These gifts will be given to the Missionaries of Charity to be distributed to the residents of the Gift of Love; to the Dwelling Place, a transitional shelter for homeless women; and to the St. Nicholas Project run by Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York.

Because of all of you—our friends, neighbors and parishioners — the "Giving Tree" has always been a tremendous success. We know you will make it so again this year. Thank you so much for your generosity!
