Stories for All Seasons

Fifteenth Sunday: Jesus Sends Apostles Out on Mission

Theme: We Must be detached to give ourselves completely to the Lord.

We can become like the dog in a large crate on the platform of a railroad station. He was the saddest dog you can imagine. A lady asked about him. "You would be sad, too," she was told, "if you were in his plight. He's chewed the tag off the crate, and doesn't know where he's going."

Application: What is the specific mission Jesus has called us to?
