

CHANCERY OFFICES CLOSED

The diocesan and Catholic Messenger offices will be closed on Good Friday, April 22.

DIOCESAN SUPPORT DAY

The Diocesan Support Day will be held May 24 and 25th in Davenport. We welcome parish and school personnel and volunteers. We look forward to meeting new people, seeing familiar faces and the opportunity to provide an enriching day. Attached are the registration form and workshop descriptions. If you have questions please contact Laurie Hoefling, hoefling@davenportdiocese.org or 563-888-4220.

VICTIM ASSISTANCE COORDINATOR, ALICIA OWENS

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month. Just seeing these words should remind us of our obligation and responsibility to protect children, young people and vulnerable adults. If you go to the USCCB website, www.usccb.org/ocyp/april_cap_month_2011.shtml you will see the logo which states Keeping Our Promise To Protect. This indeed is what we must never turn our eyes away from. As I was reflecting on this I reviewed the various categories on the website. One in particular caught my eye, from the National Review Board (May 2010) it lists "Ten Things Victim/Survivors Taught Us". This list is a gentle yet powerful reminder for me, especially number ten. I encourage you to look this up and read these for yourself. I hope it lends the same message to you.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

Sessions are open to all adults in the Diocese of Davenport and are mandated for all employees and those volunteers who work on a regular basis with children. To schedule a session contact your deanery facilitator listed on the diocesan website, www.davenportdiocese.org (Offices> Protecting Children>Safe Environment>Protecting God's Children) or Virginia Trujillo, trujillo@davenportdiocese.org or 563-888-4230. Current training scheduled (as of April 1):

Date	Location	Time
4/6/11	Pella, St. Mary Church	7:00 p.m.
4/18/11	Oskaloosa, St. Mary Church	9: 00 a.m.
5/1/11	Davenport, Assumption High School	3:00 p.m.
5/11/11	Muscatine, SS. Mary & Mathias	6:30 p.m.

To report child abuse contact: Iowa Department of Human Services Child Abuse Hotline: 800-362-2178 and if it involves clergy or church personnel also notify Alicia Owens, Victim Assistance Coordinator, 563-349-5002, or mail to vacdav@attglobal.net or PO Box 232, Bettendorf, IA 52722-0004.

LITURGY OFFICE

Music Workshops: May 7 and 21. The registration deadline is April 15. The registration forms can be found at <http://www.davenportdiocese.org/lit/litromanmissal.htm#register2>. The purpose of these workshops is to introduce the music ministry leadership (choir/music directors, keyboardists, cantors) of our communities to Mass settings from each of the three major publishers. The workshop is not intended for all choir members; as with the deanery workshops, the hope is that those attending the workshop will bring what they learn back to their parishes. The morning will begin with a keynote address on "Introducing New Mass Settings in a Parish" from Alan Hommerding (May 7) or Jerry Galipeau (May 21) from WLP. They will then lead a choral reading of the Mass settings we have selected from their collection. The afternoon will be spent in three breakout sessions practicing with Mass settings from GIA, OCP, and the ICEL chants.

PASTORAL SERVICES

Social Action . . .

Flood Preparation: To help keep tabs on flood conditions and warnings in your area, in addition to staying in touch with local weather and media sources, go to <http://www.noaawatch.gov/floods.php>.

Make plans now, particularly if you live in a low lying area near a stream or river, for flooding. Know where your important insurance, home ownership, property inventory, and similar documents are in case you need them to help replace flood damaged property. Keep medical and prescription records handy.

The links below may be of assistance in preparation. Parishes already have copies of the Diocesan Disaster Guidebook which contains a wealth of information for families as well as parishes. The Weather Service link, when opened, can be “tuned” to your area by inserting your zip code in the block at the left of the map.

Cool Congregations...an Earth Stewardship Program: Bring a team from your parish to learn how to care for creation by saving energy and money in your own home and in your worship space.

April 9: 9 a.m. – 12 noon, Zion Lutheran Church, Muscatine

Bonus at Muscatine workshop: Muscatine Power will be signing people up for free home energy audits, distributing free CFLs and more.

May 21: 9 a.m. – 12 noon, St. Thomas More Catholic Church, Coralville

Bonus at Coralville workshop: Tour of St. Thomas More’s LEED features begins at 12 noon.

Each participant is asked to register either online at iowaipl.org/calendar or by calling 515-238-3587. $25/individual or $50/congregational team of 2 or more. For more information contact coolcongregations@iowaipl.org or go to www.iowaipl.org.

Two Grants Available: Application deadline May 31

Operation Rice Bowl: For those providing/supporting direct services to people who are hungry (the first foot of social justice). If your parish or community would like to apply go to www.davenportdiocese.org and under offices click on Social Action. Here you can obtain grant criteria and instructions.

CCHD (Catholic Campaign for Human Development): For those organizations and projects that promote systemic change (the second foot of social justice). To apply send your request in a 1-2 page letter. In addition the Catholic Campaign for Human Development Grant Agreement must be completed and submitted with the grant request. To obtain a copy of the agreement go to www.davenportdiocese.org and under offices click on Social Action.

Submit applications to Esmeralda Guerrero, guerrero@davenportdiocese.org or Diocese of Davenport, 780 W. Central Park Ave., Davenport 52804-1901. For questions contact Loxi Hopkins, 563-888-4212.

Catholic Relief Services Fair Trade Catalog: The spring/summer 2011 catalog is now available at the CRS website. For a chance to buy fair trade handcrafts and gourmet food items from disadvantaged producers around the world go to <http://www.wcv2.com/publication/?m=10169&l=1>. You can also purchase your Easter chocolate and gifts at <http://www.serrv.org/Gifts/Easter/EasterChocolate.aspx>. Purchasing a fair trade item helps increase the income of a farmer or artisan in another country, giving them a better chance at self-sufficiency in their homeland.

CCHD Intern: Yvonne Villagomez has been selected as the new Catholic Campaign for Human Development Intern for the 2011-12 school year. Yvonne is a sophomore at St. Ambrose University. Yvonne will be working with the CCHD funded group Quad Cities Interfaith as a bridge between the diocese and the funded group.

St. Vincent’s Home Corporation Grant: The next application deadline: Must be postmarked by October 15.

Faith Formation . . .

“Raising Expectations: Rethinking how we minister to youth and families” is a special presentation set for 6:30 p.m. Monday, April 11 at St. Vincent Center in Davenport. It will feature Greg “Dobie” Moser, executive director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry for the Diocese of Cleveland. He is also the speaker at our April 11-12 clergy convocation. This event will give parish and school leaders and opportunity to learn more about partnering with parents in forming the faith of their children, and to hear a similar message to that which their pastors will hear. This is ideal for people who’ll come to Davenport for the Chrism Mass, which will end in ample time for the short drive to the chancery. We’ll have supper at 6:30 p.m. and the presentation follows from 7-9 p.m. A registration flier is attached. For more information, contact Pat Finan at finan@davenportdiocese.org.

Our June Institute for faith formation leaders will be Friday, June 17, at St. Vincent Center in Davenport. Our theme will be “Preparing the Way: Guidance and Resources to Help Faith Formation Leaders Introduce the New Roman Missal.” Our presenter will be Deacon Frank Agnoli, diocesan Director of Liturgy. He will expand on information shared at regional Roman Missal workshops and provide fresh ideas for preparing, children, youth and learners of all ages to appreciate the upcoming liturgical changes. A registration flier will be sent to parish and school leaders via e-mail later this month and also will be posted on the diocesan website.

Certificate Program in Youth Ministry Studies will again be offered this summer at St. Ambrose University. This program of the Center for Ministry Development includes eight courses to promote personal, spiritual and ministerial growth. It can be taken by people preparing for a career in youth ministry, veteran leaders seeking enrichment, or volunteers wanting to strengthen their skills. Courses to be offered this summer include:

June 9-10 (Th-Fr): Principles of Youth Ministry June 11-12 (Sa-Su): Practices of Youth Ministry
July 7-8 (Th-Fr): Foundations for Ministry Leadership July 9-10 (Sa-Su): Skills for Christian Leadership

Each course costs $180, but parishes and schools can register additional participants at reduced costs. On-campus housing is available at SAU for $28/night for a single room and $23/night for shared rooms. For more information, contact Stella O’Rourke, at 563-333-6083 or OrourkeStellaJ@sau.edu.

Save the Date for Great Expectations, Coaching Parents to Form Their Own Children on August 26. This in-service will address engaging parents and their children in faith and life. Details will be forthcoming.

Diocese of Davenport 2011 Christian Leadership Institute Scholarship Application

CLI is the premier training opportunity offered in Iowa for Catholic youth to learn leadership skills. It brings together youth from around the state for six days to learn how they can grow their God-given gifts for service to the Church. CLI participants return to their parishes to be more effective leaders. Many also serve on the Diocesan Youth Ministry Committee (DYMC).

The cost for CLI in 2011 is $295 per youth. While this fee (which includes lodging, meals, materials, and tuition) is comparable to many summer youth experiences, we want CLI to be available to all youth. In this spirit, the Diocesan Youth Ministry Committee supports scholarships for youth leadership training. Available funding comes from Mass collections at diocesan youth rallies, the auction of items at those rallies, and a pie-throwing fund-raiser at the Junior High Youth Rally. There may not be enough money to fulfill all requests, but a selection committee will do its best to help all qualified applicants.

Please provide the following information by Wednesday, May 25. More details below:

Name _____ Town _____ Parish _____

Home Address: _____ Grade in 2011-12 _____

How much CLI funding can you get from these sources? ($0 is acceptable, but we ask that you check first):
Family/self $ _____ Parish (youth ministry program, Knights of Columbus, other sources) $ _____

(Please feel free to write on back when answering the following questions)

What is your current involvement in parish youth ministry?

Why do you want to go to CLI?

What do you hope to do with the skills you develop at CLI?

Application must be accompanied by a letter from a parish leader (pastor, youth ministry leader or faith formation leader. This person can't be your parent) recommending you for scholarship aid.

For more information on CLI 2011 at Camp Ewalu near Strawberry Point, click here.

Applications must be received by Wednesday, May 25. Please mail them to:

Diocese of Davenport, ATTN: Pat Finan, 780 W. Central Park Ave., Davenport, IA 52804

Applicants will be notified by June 5, so they can make plans for securing any other funds needed for CLI registration. Scholarship funds will be transferred directly to the recipient's CLI registration. No check will be sent to youth or their parish leader. If you have questions, please call (641) 842-5148 or
