EMHCs—UPDATE: Last week, I published a list of the EMHCs who currently serve our parish; however, I forgot to include the people below. Alice Casey

Kathleen Cross

John Lough

Brendan Wiseman

POPE FRANCIS' INTENTION FOR JUNE—THAT SOCIAL NETWORKS MAY WORK TOWARDS THAT INXLUSIVENESS WHICH RESPECTS OTHERS FOR THEIR DIFFERENCES: “The internet is a gift from God, but it is also a great responsibility. Communication technology, its places, its instruments, have brought with it a lengthening of horizons, a widening, for so many people. It can offer immense possibilities for encounter and solidarity. May the digital Network not be a place of alienation. May it be a concrete place rich in humanity. Let us pray together that social networks may work towards that inclusiveness which respects others for their differences.

PROMISES

Today’s liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God’s will makes us “family” with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.
