dear Padre:

If I'm not Catholic, is Mass a must for the kids and me?

My husband is Catholic, but I am not. I know he is supposed to attend Mass every Sunday. What about our children and me— Do we have to go, too?

If your children were baptized in the Catholic Church, then yes, they have to attend Mass. If you or they are not baptized, attendance is not required. One of the basic precepts of our Catholic faith is the obligation of the faithful to attend Mass on Sundays. (“You shall attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation.”) This assures our regular participation in the Eucharistic celebration and commemoration of the Lord's Resurrection (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2042).

I know some other churches don't have the same understanding of obligation as Catholics do, but all Christian churches gather on Sundays. God's third commandment is, “Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day” (Exodus 20:8). It can be argued that there are many ways to keep the Sabbath holy, but Christ, the Church, and I believe that the best way is to participate in and partake of the Eucharist— to remember his saving acts, especially the act of dying and rising, and receive his Presence within us. I encourage you to attend your own church or to go to Mass with your spouse and family. Not only will you keep the Lord's Day holy, but God will make you holy as well.

Dear Friends,

This weekend we kickoff the 2016 Bishop's Annual Appeal (BAA). I am so grateful for your continued generosity to this important diocesan fundraising initiative. The Bishop's Annual Appeal funds the annual budget that offers vital services like Catholic Charities, care for our retired and infirmed priests, education of Seminarians, Catholic schools and support for our centers for special learning. I encourage you to join me in making your gift to the BAA and support these important ministries. Together we will make a difference in the lives of many people. Remember, every gift counts, no matter how small. To make your gift, please return the pledge form that you will receive in the mail or visit the Appeal's website at FaithHopeCharityGive.org or call the Appeal Office at 800-831-4443.

With gratitude, Father Straka
