THIS WEEK'S REFLECTIONS

Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep from us all adversity, so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart the things that are Yours. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Today's Mass Readings

1st reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16

2nd reading: Hebrews 9:24-28

Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

A good measure of our true motivation is our response when we are not thanked or even noticed for doing a good deed.

Responsorial Psalm Meditation

Ps 146:7-10

The Responsorial Psalm celebrates the fact that the Lord cares for those who have no one else to provide for their needs. It speaks of the widow and the orphan as well as the stranger/foreigner.

All of these are traditional categories for people who need a defender to care for them. God will be that guardian and shield.

Our role as Christians is to continue the work of looking out for the most defenseless in our society. While we have many social institutions, there are still many people who for one reason or another fall through the cracks.

As in most societies, it is often the elderly and the young who suffer most. We are to be their advocates and protectors.

It is said that the moral worth of a society is judged by how the most defenseless of its citizens are treated. We should always try to reach out to those who have been left behind and to give them a helping hand.

ST. MARGARET'S RECENT BAPTISMS

+Please pray for our newly baptised:

Abigail Compton

Luke Ferrante

Rowan O'Shea

CATHOLIC INQUIRY

The parish is offering an ongoing opportunity for adults who are new to the Catholic faith, or coming back home to the Church, to explore the opportunity of being baptised or, if already baptised, to be confirmed in the Catholic Faith and be admitted into Holy Communion. If you are new to the Catholic faith, or have been away and now coming back home, Father Wallace and the deacon will be hosting a first meeting in the hall on Sunday, November 18th, after the 11am Mass.

GIFT SHOP STOCKING STUFFERS

Because the little things mean a lot, consider getting your stocking stuffers at the parish gift store. Keeping Christmas holy and helping loved ones on the path to heaven has spiritual benefits for the givers and the receivers of the gifts. Choose from medals, holy cards, keyrings, finger rosaries, free scapulars, saint card games, Catholic ID cards, and other small but spiritually significant gifts.

CYBER SECURITY PRESENTATION!

This Tuesday, St. Margaret Parish will be hosting a Cyber Security Presentation given by the San Diego Police Department. It will begin at 6:15pm in St. Margaret's Hall. All adults are welcome!

This presentation will offer parents guidelines and resources to help them monitor their family online activity. With more of our children having smartphones and access to sites and social media, the Cyber Security Division will also be talking about cyber bullying and the effects of inappropriate images our children are often exposed to.
