The perfect family does not exist

More than anywhere else, the family is where we daily experience our own limits and those of others, the problems great and small entailed in living peacefully with others. A perfect family does not exist. We should not be fearful of imperfections, weakness or even conflict, but rather learn how to deal with them constructively. The family, where we keep loving one another despite our limits and sins, thus becomes a school of forgiveness. A child who has learned in the family to listen to others, to speak respectfully and to express his or her view without negating that of others, will be a force for dialogue and reconciliation in society

Reflection on Sunday's Readings

Life Messages: 1) Jesus wants to become a living, present reality for us, loving us, forgiving us, helping us, transforming our lives and outlook and building a personal relationship with us. The knowledge of Jesus as Lord and personal Savior needs to become a living, personal experience for each Christian drawing each of us to loving response. The relationship deepens and grows as we listen to Jesus through the daily, meditative reading of the Bible, speak to him in our daily, personal and family prayers, offer him our lives on the altar in the Holy Mass and see reconciliation with him, asking his forgiveness for our sins every night and in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In the Eucharistic celebration today, we are celebrating and experiencing in our lives the death and Resurrection of Christ, the Messiah, our Lord and personal Savior. 2) We need to surrender our life to Jesus whom we experience as our Lord and Savior: The next step is the surrender of our lives to Jesus Whose love we have experienced by rendering humble and loving service to others with the strong conviction that Jesus is present in every person. The final step is to praise and thank God in all the events of our lives, good and bad, realizing that God's love shapes every event of our lives.

Renew + Rebuild Campaign

- My dear brothers and sisters, I am pleased to announce formally the Renew +Rebuild Capital campaign here at St. Aloysius/Gate of Heaven.
- Renew + Rebuild is a $200 million campaign aimed at providing financial support to parishes to help ensure their growth and sustainability $144 million of the funds raised in this campaign will be directed to parishes to address their own local concerns
- Here at St. Aloysius/ Gate of Heaven parish, we identified several important projects that will be addressed through this effort. These are the local needs.
 - Beginning a roof fund for future repairs
 - Painting the exterior of the church
 - Renovating the basement of Gate of Heaven
 - Making repairs to the ceiling
- Every parish in the archdiocese will participate in this project. Each parish has a financial goal. Our parish goal is $179,000 dollars. Our parish will keep 74 cents of every dollar we raise.
- I wholeheartedly support the goals of the Renew + Rebuild campaign and this as an excellent opportunity for our parish.
- As we continue to grow as parish family, it is essential that our facilities be maintained, and that we provide the best possible programs for the children and adults in our parish.
- We need your help to be successful.
- We will be talking much more about Renew + Rebuild over the next several weeks.
- Please pray for the success of the campaign.

Thank you and God bless.
