From the Desk of Fr. Sergio Ovando, Pastor....

What people say and what you say...

Jesus asks his disciples what other people are saying about Him and what they themselves (the apostles) have to say about Him. From our perspective, we know that this is most important, for it is about the identity of Jesus. Thus he establishes the difference between two groups of his followers: the disciples and all of the rest. Those others are those who know or hear about Jesus, but without an opportunity to meet Him personally; the disciples are the ones who do not only know about Him, but they know the Lord Himself. That is the reason others did not know or understand the Lord's identity.

Desde el escritorio del Padre Sergio Ovando, Párroco.....

Lo que la gente dice y lo tu dices...

Jesús le pregunta a sus discípulos que dice la gente (los otros) de mi, y que es lo que dicen los mismos apóstoles sobre él, sobre lo más importante, que es la identidad de Jesús. De ese modo Él establece la diferencia entre dos clases de audiencias: los otros (la gente) y los discípulos. Los otros han escuchado y saben sobre Jesús, pero no han tenido la oportunidad de conocerlo a Él, mientras que los discípulos son los que no solo conocen sobre él, sino que lo conocen a el mismo. Esa es la razón por la cual los otros no pudieron responder correctamente la pregunta sobre quien es Jesús.

Si aplicamos el Evangelio a nosotros, hoy día, veremos que sobre Jesús muchos hablan y presentan distintas versiones sobre los que ellos creen sobre la identidad de Jesús, en algunos casos sobre como Él debería ser. Pero los que necesitan responder la pregunta sobre Jesús son aquellos que lo conocen a Él, los creyentes, nosotros.

STEWARDSHIP IN SCRIPTURE

by Deacon Rick Haeckel

The expression, "How many angels can dance on the head of a pin?" is used to respond to a question that is imponderable. By the very nature of the question being asked, the response indicates that there is no simple answer. Today's reading from the letter of James speaks of an apparent dichotomy, is one saved by faith or by works? That question has long been argued by Christians of different denominations. Catholics feel it is works and Protestants say faith. In reality there is no way to separate them. Faith, fully lived, is expressed in works of charity, etc. As well, good works precede from a faith which seeks to imitate Jesus whose faith in God enabled him to undergo his earthly life, trials and all. So what about us? When we are at our best, faith and works are seen as integral matched parts of our spiritual journey. All too often though one dominates, leading to a less focused faith. One which is maybe in our heads or else a faith fed more by our actions. We older ... uh more mature folks remember the song "Love and Marriage" which says that they "go together like a horse and carriage." OK, for you younger people that was a way of travel before automobiles became ubiquitous. The point is that many times two things are so closely related that they are seldom seen apart. So it is with faith and works. Like storm clouds and rain it is hard to find a dividing line. In today's Gospel Jesus asks his disciples who people say that he is. After replies about various prophets he asks an essential question, But who do you say that I am? You know the rest, Peter says "You are the Christ." The expected anointed one, and Jesus shares his coming fate with them. Take a moment and ask yourself who do I say that Jesus is? No short answer will do, Jesus occupies many places in our life both in our faith and our works. So much so that we need to simplify, there is too much to enumerate; but we can summarize by remembering that we are to be "Christ for one another." Definitely faith is central but so is the loving action that Jesus demonstrates over and over. In need, ask Him for guidance, not so much for answers but more with the inspiration to be like him, in word and action.

GREEN TIP OF THE WEEK

During this time of hot days and cooler nights take advantage of opening windows at night and save the A/C for the daytime. (Be safe, block the window so it can't be opened farther.)

FROM THE DESK OF FR. SERGIO...

In applying this gospel passage to ourselves, we can observe how people regard Jesus today and how they elaborate different versions of Whom they believe Jesus is and, in some cases, Who Jesus should be. But the ones who really need to answer the question about Jesus are those believers who know Him: you and I.

Jesus asks questions about his identity, not because he needs to know Who people say He is, to build up His ego. The Lord does not care about ego; the question, rather, is for us, so that we ourselves will respond and act accordingly.

It is important that we not only know about Jesus, but "exactly" Who Jesus is. We cannot settle for an invocation of the prophets of the Old Testament as Jesus' listeners did; or, as many in our own time believe, that Jesus is merely one of the greatest persons who ever lived. Although this phrase may even sound pleasing to our ears and our minds, it is only a quarter or half of the truth.. .because Jesus is so much more than that... "He is the Christ."

Why is this important? Because understanding who we are and in Whom we believe give us clarity in the things we expect from ourselves – and what we expect from Him. But also, the secrecy that is mentioned in the gospel of Mark belongs only to the time of Jesus, not to our time. On the contrary, we are called to proclaim Jesus in the fullness of His identity; the same Jesus who invites us all to follow Him and to take up our own crosses. The Jesus whom Peter confesses is without a doubt the same One who died and came back to life for us. We should not change the way we see Him or present Him to others, with all the complication that this might have. As St. Paul wrote: We proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God (1 Corinthians 1:23-24).

Finally, we are all called truly to know Jesus, not just to know about Him; this can be done, just as did the apostles, in the daily communication and encounter with the Lord. Only then will we recognize Him in each moment of our lives.

DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE SERGIO....

La pregunta de Jesús sobre sí mismo no se debe a que Él quiera realmente saber que es lo que la gente dice sobre Él, para aumentar su ego. Al Señor no le interesan esas cosas. La pregunta es para nosotros, para que nosotros contestemos y actuamos respectivamente.

Es importante para nosotros no sólo que sepamos quien es Jesús, sino que sepamos exactamente quien es Él, no una versión actualizada de los profetas del Antiguo Testamento, como los otros dicen, o como mucha gente piensa en nuestro tiempo, afirmando que Jesús es una de las personas más grande que han existido. A pesar de que esta frase suene bien, es solamente una verdad a medias o un cuarto de la verdad... porque Jesús es mucho mas que eso... "Él es el Mesías".

¿Porqué es importante esto? Porque entendiendo quienes somos y en quien creemos, obtendremos claridad en las cosas que esperamos de nosotros mismos y lo que esperamos de Él. También el secreto que es mencionado en el evangelio de Marcos pertenece sólo al tiempo de Jesús, no a nuestro tiempo. Al contrario, estamos llamados a proclamar a Jesús en la totalidad de su identidad, a proclamar el mismo Cristo que invita a seguirlo y a cargar con nuestras cruces. Estamos llamados a proclamar el Jesús que Pedro confesó sin dudas, quien murió y resucitó por nosotros. Nosotros no debemos cambiar la forma en que lo vemos o la forma como lo presentamos a otros, a pesar de que traiga complicaciones. Como dice St. Pablo: Nosotros proclamamos a Cristo Crucificado, escandalo para los judíos y locura para los gentiles, pero para los que son llamados, judíos y griegos, poder y sabiduría de Dios (1 Cor 1:23-24).

En resumen, todos estamos llamado a conocer a Jesús, no sólo sobre Él, sino a Él mismo y esto puede realizarse al modo como lo hicieron los apóstoles, a través de la comunicación y el encuentro diario con Jesús. Y como consecuencia Lo reconoceremos en todos los momentos de nuestra vida.

PREGUNTA DE LA SEMANA

Adulto: "¿Por qué la fe siempre debe conducir a buenas obras?"

Niño: "¿Qué buenas obras puedes hacer para mostrar tu fe en Jesús?"

VIGÉSIMO CUARTO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

EXALTACIÓN DE LA SANTA CRUZ

Señor, Dios nuestro, que has querido salvar a los hombres por medio de tu Hijo muerto en la cruz, te pedimos, ya que nos has dado a conocer en la tierra la fuerza misteriosa de la Cruz de Cristo, que podamos alcanzar en el cielo los frutos de la redención. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo.

Las banderas reales se adelantan
Y las cruz misteriosa en ellas brilla:
La cruz en que la vida sufrió muerte
Y en que, sufriendo muerte, nos dio vida.

Ella sostuvo el sacrosanto cuerpo
Que, al ser herido por la lanza dura,
Derramó sangre y agua en abundancia
Para lavar con ellas nuestras culpas.

En ella se cumplió perfectamente
Lo que David profetizó en su verso,
Cuándo dijo a los pueblos de la tierra:
"Nuestro Dios reinará desde un madero".

¡Árbol lleno de luz, árbol hermoso,
árbol hornado con la regia púrpura
y destinado a que su tronco digno sintiera el roce de la carne pura!

¡Dichosa cruz que con tus brazos firmes,
en que estuvo colgado nuestro precio, fuiste balanza para el cuerpo santo que arrebató su presa a los infiernos!

A ti, que eres la única esperanza,
Te ensalzamos, oh cruz, y te rogamos
Que acrecientes la gracia de los justos
Y borres los delitos de los malos.

Recibe, oh Trinidad, fuente salubre
La alabanza de todos los espíritus,
Y tú que con tu cruz nos das el triunfo,
Añádenos el premio, oh Jesucristo. Amén

Equipping Families to Pass on the Faith

Family Faith Formation at St. Catherine's Church

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

This weekend the Church celebrates Catechetical Sunday when those who the parish community has designated to serve as catechists are called forth to be commissioned for their ministry.

The 2018 theme is "Enlisting Witnesses for Jesus Christ." Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each one of us has, by virtue of our Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.

How? As a community of faith, we do so in the everyday moments of our lives by our example of a lived faith through prayer and witness. Every person we are in contact with—family members, neighbors, friends and colleagues, is an opportunity to draw them into a deeper relationship with Jesus. It isn't a one time deal, but a commitment to the continual conversion and transformation of our lives to ones of holiness. Following are a couple of opportunities and needs in our parish to accompany our brothers and sisters on their journey:

- Join a new ministry. Liturgical Ministry, Safe Car Park and Stephens Ministry all welcome new workers in the vineyard.
- Accompany an adult or youth as a parish sponsor as they discover the Catholic faith through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) process.

Contact Faith Formation at (408) 779-9604 for info.

Edge meets this Wednesday from 7-8:30pm in Milani. We continue our series on the last section of the Nicene Creed: Breathing Fire—this Wednesday we are going over the Church. All 6-8th graders are invited to join us, whether they've been coming to previous sessions or not!

No Life Teen this Sunday because of the Fall Fun Fest. We encourage you to sign up to help with clean up, or go over after Mass to see if they still need help.

Next week we begin our series Question Everything—encouraging teens to ask questions about our faith so as to deepen theirs.

Confirmation

What we try to do in our Confirmation process is to help the teens have a more intimate relationship with Jesus, and to excite their desire to let the Holy Spirit lead them.

Parents Join us this Monday in the Milani Center at 7:30pm to learn more about Confirmation for your teens. Teens do not come to this meeting—there will be one on the 30th for them.

OPEN MY EARS LORD

Last week, in the Gospel, we saw Jesus healing a deaf man to be able to hear.

It seems intentional that the Church followed that with this week's 1st reading, where God opens the ears of His servant. We pray that God opens our ears as well to hear Him better—but do we do it with the expectation that everything will be really nice and life will go smoothly? Because that's not what's happening in the Isaiah today. After the ears are open, there's a beat down. And the servant of the Lord takes it, without fighting. Allowing it to happen because they know they are following God and not turning their back on Him.

I don't know about you, but I don't know if my faith is strong enough for that. I believe in God, I want to follow Him, but I haven't had to face any harm because of my faith. I pray that if the day comes, I'm strong enough. Not strong enough to handle it on my own, because I know that it will end in failure—but strong enough to allow God's strength to assist me. In the second half of the reading, it tells us plainly: "The Lord God is my help." It's when we think that we can do it all for God, yet without God, that we fall into trouble.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Bright Beginnings Nursery is open on Sundays during the 8:45am and 10:30am Masses. There are toys and activities for children from ages 1 to 4 years old. Hiedi Betancourt is the Nursery Supervisor and has led the Nursery for years. Enter the Parish Center and the Nursery is on the left. We are open when you see the Bright Beginnings sign in the front of the Parish Center.

OUR CHURCH
OUR HERITAGE

This week we continue the stories behind the stained glass windows of St. Catherine's. In the sixth in our series, we highlight our patroness, St. Catherine of Alexandria. She is always depicted with a crown, a wheel and a palm branch, which indicate martyrdom. She died a martyr in 305A.D. at the age of 18, and many stories have survived her. Born in Alexandria, she was persecuted as many others were for their faith. But, some have speculated she did not exist, but her legends are a compilation of Christian women who were martyred at the time. The breaking wheel in the picture was a torture vehicle of the time. It was miraculously shattered before it could be used on her. This is also another case of the wrong donor plaque on one of our windows. Before the move to the new Church, documents stated that the donor plaque was In Memory of Mrs. Catherine Dunne, which is now on a different window, which we will discuss next week.

St. Catherine School News

First graders always enjoy their trips to the school garden. On a recent trip each student got to pick vegetables of their choice. They gathered tomatoes, gourds, and beans. They are very excited about the watermelons that are almost ready to pick. And they can hardly wait to see how peanuts are formed under the soil.

LENDING LIBRARY FOR PARENTS AND PARISHIONERS

A small lending library of faith based and spiritual books is now available in the school lobby. If you are looking for special information about our Catholic faith or a book to inspire you to seek a closer relationship with Jesus, stop by and check out the selection. Just take the book with you and return it when you finish. After you finish a book, you are encouraged (certainly not required) to jot a few notes about its impact on the sheet in the front cover. If you have books about our faith and developing a relationship with Christ that you would like to share with others, just drop it off at the school office. We'll put it on our list, include a note sheet and get it on the shelf.

ST. CATHERINE SCHOOL WALKATHON

Mark your calendars, October 5th is the big day! Please support our school by making a pledge or sponsor this event and help our school continue to provide the best Catholic education for our children. Of course, all donations are fully tax deductible. Donations may be submitted to the school office.

Sixth graders enjoyed sharing their descriptive paragraphs. They are learning how to use descriptive words to enhance the understanding of the characters about which they are writing.
