The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Growing as Disciples of Jesus, Making Disciples For Jesus

This week in Catholic History:
We celebrate the conversion of St. Paul, the man who went from dragging men and women from their homes so they could be put to death for following Jesus, to one of the most well known saints ever. He is my go-to intercessor when I encounter someone who appears to have no chance of becoming Catholic or living a Catholic life. He, along with so many others, is proof that God's grace is much greater than our stubborn hardness of heart.

From the Archbishop:

As we mark the 44th anniversary of the deadly Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision which made abortion legal through all nine months in our nation, we are urging everyone to take action on important pro-life legislation: The federal government should not use tax dollars to support or promote elective abortion. Please stop on your way out of church to take action on important pro-life legislation: The No Taxpayer Funding for Abortion Bill. It will take less than 2 minutes. You can do so at any time by visiting www.HumanLifeAction.org and clicking Take Action.

Also, as a different way of taking action for the dignity of every human life, you can help support families with foster children. KVC is one of the companies the state pairs with to place children with families, and their website offers several means of helping those families out.

Please visit the parish website for links to both of these opportunities to promote the dignity of every human life. If you don't have internet access or would like some help or have questions about either, please simply ask.

Additionally, the Archdiocese's Rural Outreach is putting on a training session featuring Jim Beckman of Y-Disciple and Augustine Institute. It is titled, "IF YOU WANT TO KNOW WHO YOU ARE AND WHY YOU'RE HERE, START PRAYING EVERY DAY". It will be hosted from 3-6pm, Saturday, February 4th at St Columbkille's, in the east meeting room. Mass is at 6pm. All are invited and encouraged to attend. The parish gets grant money for each person who attends!

Financial Peace University

We have a couple spots left for Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University, starting Feb 2nd, at 7pm in the Cigna Center. You can sign up online through the parish website. Feel free to consider the cost of the program as your tithe to the parish.

Please help us support our local food pantry. There is a basket in the back of church to drop off non-perishable food items.

Marriage Minute— This week's first reading and psalm speak of great rejoicing, of long-suffered sorrow being lifted. They are connected to the Gospel in which Jesus starts his public ministry. We often view joy as an emotion that comes upon us during favorable circumstances, such as winning the lottery. But this is not the way Jesus understood it. Joy is something we cultivate. Jesus' first message for his first disciples is the first step to growing joy in our lives: repentance. If the idea of repentance doesn't come to mind when you think of joy, you're not alone. The connection is foreign to many of us, yet this is where the "peace on earth" that was promised us a few weeks ago at Christmas starts. Pray this week for the grace to see where you may have hurt your spouse (especially look at what you're not doing, but should) and then humbly ask forgiveness.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING—This New Year, resolve to drop the burden of contraception and embrace the freedom of Natural Family Planning! Leave behind the health risks of contraception—you and your spouse deserve this wonderful gift to each other! A reasonable course fee is charged. Call Dana or Eric Runnebaum at 785-380-0062 for more info, including the class location and the availability of online classes. Pre-registration required at: www.ccli.org. Learn more at nfptopeka.blogspot.com.

World Marriage Day Mass February 12, 2017 Come celebrate World Marriage Day and renew the commitment you made to one another on your wedding day! Mass will be celebrated by Bishop James V. Johnston Jr., and Archbishop Joseph F. Naumann at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, February 12, 2017, at St. Thomas More Parish, 11822 Holmes Road, Kansas City, MO 64131. Mass will include a renewal of commitment and Blessing for the married couples. Mass will be followed by a reception. Families are welcome! Sponsored by the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph, the Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas and Worldwide Marriage Encounter. For more information call 913-647-0329.

Reflecting On Sunday's Readings

The contrast of light and darkness was made real for us one fall in Maine, sitting on Cadillac Mountain. Dozens of people, huddled under inadequate blankets, clustered in units of two or three in the cold, damp darkness, sat shivering against hard granite, isolated, uncommunicative, and alone. Each was drawn there to catch the sun's warm penetrating rays of light as it first touched U.S. soil. Simultaneously, everyone cheered as the light appeared and the darkness was transformed. Cameras clicked and clicked to capture the ever-changing warmth and beauty, which the light brought as it seemingly emerged from the ocean's coldness. Not only was nature transformed but people also were transformed from reclusive pockets of darkened isolation to smiling animated individuals who for a few moments shared something bright and wonderful. Perhaps there is neither a deeper, nor more impenetrable darkness, or any greater scandal than the hostility and disunity that sometimes exists among Christians. We too often huddle around the cold, granite-like distinctives of our disunity. The Father proclaims in Ephesians that he has united all humanity, Jews and Gentiles, "in one body through the cross ... thus making peace." Yet, we often drive wedges of division into that unity by exalting some unique distinctive, in a spirit of hostility toward others who disagree with us, thus obscuring THE Light. Jesus, the Light of the world, is still ready to transform the darkness of our disunity, if we are ready to share the One Thing we have in common, Jesus himself. This is what Pope John Paul II stressed in Be Not Afraid by Andre Frossard, "The very realization that in spite of everything, what unites us is stronger than what divides us and deeper than what separates us, obliges us to look deeper." He further affirms that, "In the last analysis, the union of Christians can only be a mature gift of the Holy Spirit, accepted by the intelligence, the heart and the will, and translated into acts from year to year." This week's second reading by Paul contrasts the Corinthian's experience of dissensions, quarreling and religious factions, with the increased joy, rejoicing, and communal sharing of this week's first reading by Isaiah. What is the difference? In Corinth the people did not unite and accept with intelligence, heart and will the unity which exists in Jesus, the Light of the world. Instead they united around their various founders and made that their distinctive. Unfortunately, we can know the truth that "the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light," and that for "those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned," and still not experience the Light's warmth and beauty. We can stay huddled under the blanket of our cold indifference, and seek the eluding warmth of a lesser light, or we can, through the repentance of which Jesus speaks in the gospel reading, abandon our icy position and move toward THE Light. He alone offers us lasting warmth and beauty as he brings us together. Christ came to shatter the darkness, and he did. Yet in our humanity we often harbor little areas of darkness where we have not allowed his light to penetrate. So as we reflect on this coming Sunday's passages, may two things happen. First, may Jesus our Light reveal those areas where he desires to shine and eliminate the remaining visages of darkness. Secondly, may we see ourselves as Light-bearers reflecting his grace, warmth, and oneness to those around us who are still sitting in darkness.
