New Members Welcome
May 31st @ 9:15a.m.

The 'new member welcome' will be held between the Masses in the parish center. There is so much more to joining a church than completing a registration form. Our welcoming ministry wants everyone to feel welcomed and personally greeted. We will share with you our involvement with the parish to introduce you to the unique opportunities you will find here with your parish family. And we will explain the three commitments that are basic to parish membership: Sunday worship, sharing in ministry, and living Gospel stewardship. Anyone who is thinking about joining the parish or those who have registered but haven't been to a parish orientation, please join us. We are looking forward to getting to know each of you.

THE HOLY ROSARY

Join the Legion of Mary in the recitation of the Rosary every Monday morning after daily Mass.

Fill the Bottle

Keep filling those baby bottles with your loose change. All donations will go to Family Life Ministries to support the Ronda Coon Home. If you need a baby bottle, they will be available at the Hospitality Cart.

What is Prayer?

"Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God." (St. John Damascene, CCC 2559)

God invites us into a relationship with Him that is both personal and communal. He speaks to us through His Son, Jesus Christ, the Word-made-flesh. Prayer is our response to God who is already speaking or, better yet, revealing Himself to us. Therefore, prayer is not merely an exchange of words, but it engages the whole person in a relationship with God the Father, through the Son, and in the Holy Spirit.

5 "W"s of Eleanor J. Johnson Summer Lunch Program

A very important planning meeting will be held in the parish center for all volunteers participating in the summer program at EJJYC on Monday, June 1 at 6:30 p.m. This will give everyone both new and experienced volunteers the details of how the summer program will operate this summer. You will learn the who, what, when, where, and WHY of this relationship we are building with the youth center. If you haven't signed up to help because you'd like to learn more, please attend the meeting.

Why doesn't Jesus know everything God knows?

Q

How can Jesus not know everything God knows?

Mark 13:32 says of the end of the world, "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." If Jesus, God the Father, and the Holy Spirit are one, how can Jesus not know everything God knows?

In our studies about Jesus, Christology, we believe Jesus is 100 percent human and 100 percent divine. Two natures in one person. That is a mystery.

So when Jesus says he does not know the day of the end of the world, he means that his human nature does not know.

That same doctrine is the way we understand how Jesus as divine could die—that is, his human part. That is how the Lord entered into our history and can really save us: He is truly one of us.

Every person has free will. That means our choices are not predetermined. God knows all our possible choices and how those choices will affect the world. So there are multiple possible futures. God knows them all, so God does know when the world will end.

The human mind cannot conceive every possible choice and every possible effect. So just as Jesus had to learn to speak, in his humanity he cannot know all possible futures.

The Most Holy Trinity B 1
Deuteronomy 4: 32-34, 39-40

God's Story

Every family has its own unique story. Some speak of the immigration of their forebears. Others trace their ancestry back many generations within the place where they live. Some have endured great hardship. Others have received countless blessings. Every family has stories that make it different from every other family.

On his way to the Promised Land, Moses reminded his people of their story. They used to live in Egypt, but by many signs and wonders, and by war, they left their place of slavery and stood poised to enter a new home. They shared ancestry, persecution, victory, freedom, and a long journey. Those events had made them the unique family they now were.

But there was something more about their story. God played a central role. God spoke to them. God claimed them. God worked the wonders that brought them freedom. They could not tell their own family story without also telling a story of God.

Trinity Sunday celebrates our belief in God. God has played a central role in our story, too. When you review the history of your family, where has God been active? How has God shown power and presence? How has God shown love?

The Most Holy Trinity B 2
Romans 8:14-17

Our Position with the Trinity

We do everything in the name of the Trinity. We begin and end our prayer with the sign of the cross. Many orations at church are offered to the Father, through the Son and in the Holy Spirit.

The Bible often mentions the roles of the Trinity, and one section of Paul's Letter to the Romans is a good example. Paul says that the Father has sent the Spirit to lead us. We receive the Spirit not to be slaves, but adopted children of God. The Spirit leads us in freedom, guides our choices, and directs our steps. Because of the Spirit's lead we call God our Father.

Jesus Christ, Paul continues, is an heir to all that the Father has promised. He suffered for us, and God has glorified him. Jesus is the Son of God. The Spirit has made us adopted children of God. Consequently, we are "heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ." We share a privileged position with the Holy Trinity because of the will of the Father, who sent the Spirit, and the activity of the Spirit, who leads us to the Father.

God asks us to suffer with Christ "so that we may also be glorified with him." Human life is filled with suffering. Sometimes we willingly increase it for the sake of others and the message of the gospel. We gain our strength by doing everything in the name of the Trinity.

Holy Land Pilgrimage November 2-10, 2015

$3,248.00

Your journey of faith and renewal will bring you as close as humanly possible to the places where our ancestors in the faith experienced God, in the hope that you, too, will receive some of the blessings of this Holy Land.

You will see the home of Jesus, Mary and Joseph in Nazareth, where the Word of God became flesh. You will experience the beautiful land around the Sea of Galilee where Jesus performed miracles you will stand inside the tomb where he rose from the dead. The Scriptures will come alive for you in a way you cannot imagine when you journey to the land of Jesus' birth.

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Holy Trinity is one of the most fundamental mysteries of our faith. We profess our belief in the Holy Trinity as part of the Nicene Creed, our Profession of Faith, which we join together to say at Mass (The Apostles' Creed, another form, may be used at Masses where children are in the majority). The word "creed" is drawn from the Latin word credo, which means, "I believe."

According to some traditions, the Apostles composed the Apostles' Creed on Pentecost Sunday, which we celebrated one week ago. It is a natural progression for us to celebrate this Feast at this time, just after Pentecost and the end of our Easter season. As indicated, we consider the Holy Trinity as a Mystery of our faith. A Mystery in this regard means that this is something that goes beyond our ability to genuinely understand it completely.

That and other mysteries of the faith are sometimes a challenge for us as Catholics. If we do not understand nor fully grasp something, we may have a tendency to doubt, to have reservations. One of the joys of stewardship is trusting completely in God, of accepting the fact that we may never have all the answers. Needing all the answers is a human failing. As professed Catholics we need to accept, and we need to follow and commit to the Lord's call to discipleship.

Living Stewardship Now

Although Jesus does command his followers to baptize in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19), the term "Trinity" never appears in scripture. The Church believes that this truth has been revealed as the worshiping Church pondered its experience of God. It took three hundred years of such pondering before the Church declared the doctrine of the Trinity: the unity of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as three persons in one divine Being. It is important to understand that "person" was traditionally understood as being in relationship to others. So the three persons of the Trinity are three in one: distinct, but one in being. As human beings in the likeness of our creator we cannot "go it alone" without dire consequences. We are all here to rely on one another, and find increasing joy in a faithful life.

When I was a young girl, I used to imagine I was adopted. This had nothing to do with loving my parents and family, which I did. I think it was one of the many steps in dealing with the life questions, "Who am I" and "Who do I belong to?"

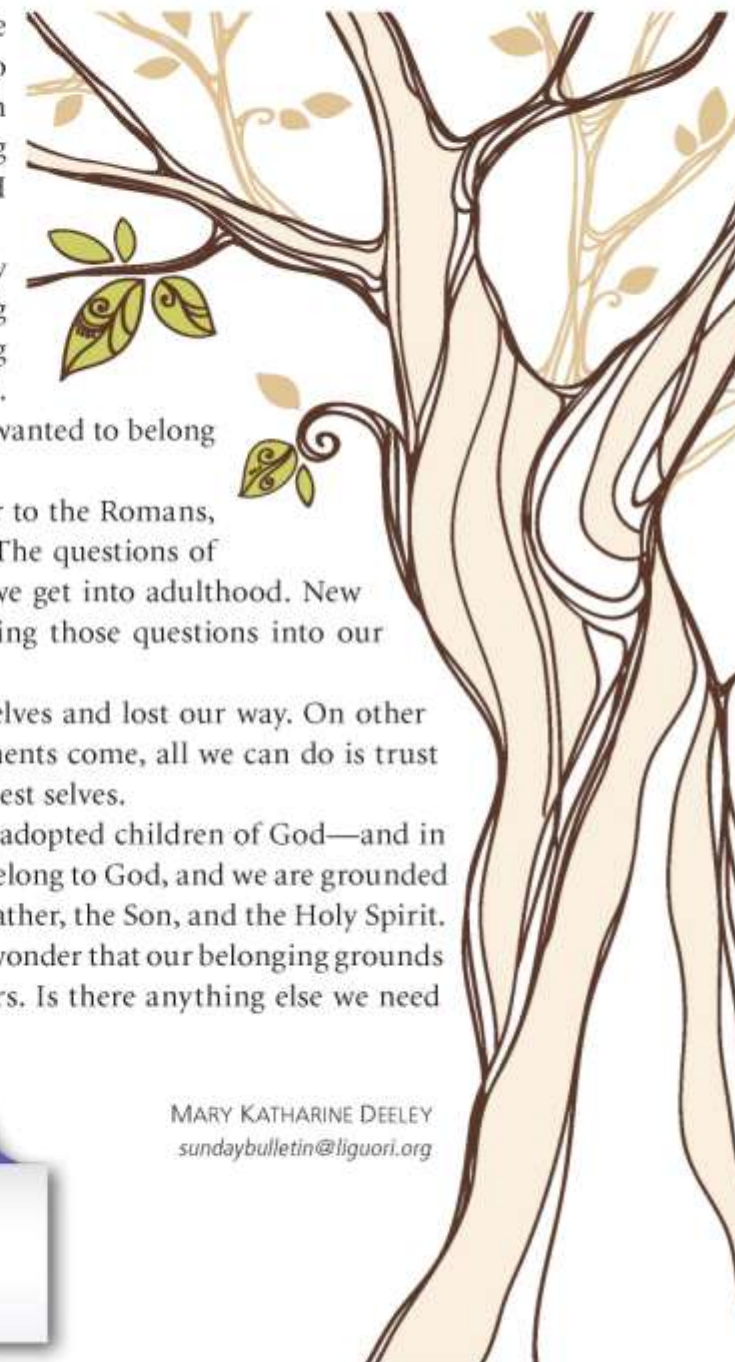

Later in my life, I met people who were actually adopted, and one said the experience of being adopted gave him a much clearer sense of belonging than I knew. "Someone chose me," he said. "A family wanted me to belong to them and they wanted to belong to me."

Whenever I read today's section of Paul's Letter to the Romans, I remember my friend and my own wondering. The questions of who we are and whose we are don't go away as we get into adulthood. New schools, new jobs, and new family situations bring those questions into our minds, sometimes with a force that surprises us.

There are times we feel as if we have lost ourselves and lost our way. On other occasions, we might feel alone. When those moments come, all we can do is trust that someone does love us and calls us to be our best selves.

In his letter, Paul reminds us who we are—the adopted children of God—and in the process he also reminds us whose we are. We belong to God, and we are grounded in this reality by our baptism in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

God, in his being, is a love relationship. Is it any wonder that our belonging grounds us in the dark times and gives us joy in the others. Is there anything else we need to know?
