How I would make the world a better place:

"I want people to have faith in the world. I want white and black people not to fight." Mia

"By being friends with everyone." John C.

"By picking up the trash and keeping the world safe." Lucas

"Visit more people." Phoebe "End racism forever!" Ashley

"Spread the love of Jesus and God." Chase

Dear Parents and Guardians,

As we celebrate Black History Month, special thanks to our third graders, quoted above, for sharing how they, like Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., dream to make the world a better place.

Registration is going well – we have 84 students registered for next school year! There are special scholarships have a due date of SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 17 in TADS. Mrs. Pfeifer has sent reminders on this. Don't miss this fabulous opportunity through the Aim Higher Foundation and Catholic Services Appeal Foundation!

20 Prizes in 20 Days! Once registered, your child's name is put in a drawing for prizes. We are on Day 9 and the prizes are amazing – see the enclosed flyer. We will recognize the parents and registered students next Wednesday, February 20th with registration gifts of water bottles and dress-down coupons – see the enclosed flyer!

Raffle Update: The Catholic United Financial Raffle is an outstanding fundraiser. We are given this opportunity to earn this money for our school by this generous organization. Your child needs to return the raffle tickets as soon as possible – sold and unsold. It's important to make the return and to do your best to sell the tickets. We are grateful!

Please return the March Lunch Menu.

Thanks and congratulations to the students who excel at bringing in Box Tops – Vivian, Charley and Bella were our top winners and the trophy transferred to 2nd grade.

Prayer request: Please hold our student Zion in prayer as she is home recovering from surgery.

Thank you for registering for our school! Your child will receive an education that is excellent, personalized and faith-filled.

Blessed to Serve,

Jane Bona, Principal
