

5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FEBRUARY 5, 2017

Following Jesus: Invitation to Discipleship

Discipleship is an ongoing journey of conversion.

Stage 2: Curiosity

A person is intrigued by Jesus, his life, and his teachings or some aspect of the Christian faith. While not yet open to personal change, the curious are open to friendships based on faith, seek answers, and respond to inspiring personal testimonies.

How we can help people at this stage:

Answer questions.

Listen to their stories and be willing to share our own.

Provide a welcoming environment.

Here are 5 stages of conversion:*

Trust - Curiosity - Openness - Seeking - Intentional discipleship

*There are different models for this process of conversion. This one comes from the book Forming Intentional Disciples by Sherry Weddell.

From the Catholic Services Appeal Foundation

The 2017 Catholic Services Appeal for the 17 Collective Ministries of our Archdiocese has officially begun! The Collective Ministries are the shared ministries of this Archdiocese that no one parish can support on its own. Those who have contributed to the Appeal in the past should shortly receive a mailing from the CSAF requesting your continued support. We ask that you once again open your generous hearts to hear the cry of the poor, the sick, the school children, and the many other people in need who are served by these ministries.

Please prayerfully consider making a pledge. You can visit our website at www.csafspm.org for more information regarding the 17 Collective Ministries. Please send in your pledge using the postage prepaid envelope provided with the mailing or bring your completed pledge to Mass and drop it in the offering. Thank you for your generosity!

The 17 Collective Ministries served by the Catholic Services Appeal are:

1. American Indian Ministry
2. Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women (ACCW)
3. Campus Ministry ~ Newman Center
4. Campus Ministry ~ Saint Paul's Outreach

Western Catholic Community

From the Desk of Father Dave

Music Matters

Good music is essential to the weekend liturgies. Music moves towards the transcendent. As a presider, I get energized by music as it allows me to pray the Mass more readily. We have some updates to the music program in the Western Catholic Community.

The choir at the 8 am St. Scholastica Mass is working hard. They were worried about adapting to the new hymnals. I would like to thank Brian Rynda, Rosie Hauer, and the rest of the choir for their outstanding effort. With great work on their part, they are picking up the new music well.

We are still looking for an assistant to Debbie Gregor who would play the 8:15 pm Saturday Mass and the 10 am Sunday Mass. She is willing to work with someone who has good keyboard skills. This would be a paid part-time position.

I would like to thank Deacon Bob for keeping us afloat musically for the 8:15 and 10 am Masses. Deacon Bob is a world class musician who is a real gift to this community. I would like Deacon Bob to be able to preach more Masses and assist with other pastoral care matters and not be so tied down to a regular music schedule. He would certainly be able to spell Debbie Gregor's music assistant, but he is so valuable we want to be able to utilize him in different ways at all three sites.

We have some promising news on finding someone to fill in for Deacon Bob when he preaches at St. Wenceslaus. He usually preaches there on the third weekend. This means he misses the 10 am Mass on that weekend. We have a few people who are willing to help lead music. They are looking for others who might assist them with their voices. Contact me if you are interested in helping.

The surest way for us to continue to exist is to remain a vibrant community. Music for the Masses is key for this quest. Please keep our music program in your prayers.

Peace Prayer

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love. Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is discord, union; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is error, truth; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy. O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console: To be understood, as to understand; To be loved, as to love: For it is in giving that we receive, It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
