THE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR FAITH

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

Today's Good News ~Living with Christ

"How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" (Mark 10:23). We want it all: the great job, the hefty paycheck, the perfect spouse, the well-behaved kids, the best friends, the good health, the exciting retirement. But having it all can come at a price. We could become so busy focusing on all we have that we have no time for God. Or we may become so satisfied with ourselves and our accomplishments that we think we don't need God. Today let us reflect on our poverty—not necessarily our financial poverty, but our "poverty of being": our smallness, shortcomings, failures, and restlessness that remind us of our need for God. Without these, we might be tempted to think we can "go it alone." Rather than being ashamed of our poverty of being, let us embrace it as proof of our deep need for God in our everyday life. Spirit of God, come fill my emptiness with your rich love. SR. MELANNIE SVOBODE, SND
