

WITH REV. RICHARD DELILLIO, OSFS

God's Goodness

How it touches our lives in good times and in our difficult moments. Based on the writing of Pope Francis & St. Francis De Sales as they flow from Jesus' teachings.

SMM Parish Mission will be held at 6PM:
Sunday, March 31st
Monday, April 1st
Tuesday, April 2nd

Rev. Richard R. DeLillio, OSFS

Oblate of St Francis de Sales, Richard R. DeLillio, OSFS earned degrees Masters in Counseling from Villanova University; Masters of Divinity from St. Charles Borromeo; and a Doctorate of Ministry from Wesley Seminary in Washington DC.

Fr. has held many academic and leadership roles at The Catholic University of America (CUA) in Washington, DC, including Professor of Homiletics, He recently retired from CUA as an Clinical Associate Faculty Member in the discipline of Preaching and Pastoral Studies. He was awarded the Gerald L Brown SS Award for Excellence in Pastoral Ministry for his ministry to the Church and the formation of priests through Preaching.

Fr. DeLillio currently blogs on the topic of Everyday Spirituality called livetodaywell.org, published weekly and containing opportunities for reflection and spiritual enrichment for the spiritual journey in the Salesian tradition Father presently serves as priest in residence at St. John Neumann Parish in Reston, VA.

He also writes and publishes Homilies for Priest Magazine. He has given retreats for both religious and families in Australia, India, South Africa and the United States.

Mark your calendars!

Father DeLillio will be at all the masses on Sunday, March 31st & meet with SMM
Students Monday, April 1st.

Mission will be held at 6PM:

Sunday, March 31st

Monday, April 1st

Tuesday, April 2nd with Benediction